We are delighted to present two works that will be produced by Tortive Theatre for the prestigious Edinburgh Fringe 2024. Both productions premiered in Hamburg, Germany: Cringe Effect to sell-out audiences in 2022 at MUT! Theater and The Hunchback Variations in 2007 at The Rover Rep Theatre. Since then, Hunchback has gone on to have multiple performances in different venues and countries, winning a few awards.

CRINGE EFFECT

A one-woman dark comedy not to be missed: Ce, battling anorexia, shares her rehab journey, revealing a poignant victory of courage and vulnerability amid societal pressures and near-death experiences.

THE HUNCHBACK VARIATIONS

In a rare live appearance, deaf German composer Ludwig van Beethoven and deaf bell-ringer Quasimodo, also known as The Hunchback of Notre Dame, invite you to a panel discussion on the search for the impossible sound.

We are showing these works to Hamburg audiences in preparation for our Edinburgh run. Enjoy a great evening of theatre!
